HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND Hoofland's German Tonic. The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable. The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases: Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits. The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his cure, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established itself a reputation for the cure of those diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies— HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other medicine known to the public. These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines. DEBILITY, Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c. There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being. PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years. NOTICE. It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, never feel well. They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN, Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed. TESTIMONIALS. HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes: Philadelphia, March 18, 1767. "I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD." HON. JAMES THOMPSON, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, April 23, 1866. "I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON." FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eighth, below Coates St. FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL. Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia. I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL. CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit. Principal Office and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. 631 ARCH Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Charles M. Evans, Proprietor, Formerly C. M. JACKSON & CO. PRICES. Hoofland's German Bitters, per bottle, $1 00 " " " half dozen, 5 00 Hoofland's German Tonic, put up in quart bottles $1 50 " per bottle, or a half dozen for $7 50. ☞Do not forget to examine well the article you buy, in order to get the genuine. Gen. Grant and a Democratic "Peace," From the New York Times. The organs of the Democratic party insist that "peace" cannot be secured to the country by the election of General Grant. Precisely so in 1864 they insisted that peace demanded the election of McClellan and the defeat of Lincoln. Then war was flagrant, and the Democratic mode of securing peace was by stopping the war—by proclaiming a truce between the contending armies, and making that the occasion and the basis for a permanent adjustment of conflicting claims. The people did not sanction this programme. They preferred to "fight it out," and in that way to settle the issues that had been made. They re-elected Lincoln, and thus proclaimed their fixed and unalterable determination to make peace by overcoming and conquering the rebellion which had disturbed it. The Democratic plan would have ended the war, undoubtedly, and would thus have given us peace; but it would have been a peace lacking all sanction—a peace that would have settled nothing—that would have left all the original elements of the rebellion in full vigor and force, and that would have been speedily dispelled by a renewal of the contest under circumstances infinitely more favorable to the rebellion. Time has thoroughly vindicated the wisdom of the decision in 1864. Peace came—the war closed—the moment that decision was pronounced. And so will it be now. The election of General Grant will have the same effect on the political passions and conflicts that now disturb the public mind, which the election of Lincoln in 1864 had upon the contest waged in the battle-field. It will declare the fixed purpose of the people; and that of itself will go far towards securing the object sought. For, in spite of the clamor and confusion that always accompany a political canvass, the will of the people, when once declared, always challenges and commands respect. All parties, all sections, all interests and all classes respect it. It is the natural tendency of popular sentiment to defer to and obey it. The history of the nation affords only one instance of an effort to disregard and resist it—and the result of that was so disastrous—so utterly fatal to those by whom it was made—that there is but little danger of its being renewed, during the present generation at all events. The Democratic party is dealing largely in threats of resistance to the public will, if it shall be pronounced in favor of the election of General Grant and of reconstruction on the basis of universal suffrage laid down by Congress. There is neither terror nor strength in these threats. Indeed, a portion of the Democratic press is already learning that they only damage the cause they are designed to serve. There may be differences of opinion as to the wisdom of the Congressional plan of reconstruction, but there will be none as to the necessity of not allowing that plan, or any other that may be embodied in the law of the land, to be overthrown by force. Democrats may threaten such resistance now as they did in 1860; and the South may trust to hopes of party aid in resisting it now, as they did then. But it will fail them still more signally and disastrously now. The national sentiment—the sentiment of loyalty to the law—the sentiment which reinforces and sustains the will of the nation as embodied in law, and which will maintain and enforce that will against hostility from any and from every quarter, is stronger now than it ever was before. In the personal character and temper of General Grant, moreover, the whole country feels a profound assurance, that under his administration peace will be sought and secured in the spirit of peace. He has held himself aloof—steadily from the very beginning—from everything like party rancor and sectional passion. He has taken part in none of the political or party conflicts of the day. He has neither shown nor felt anything like hostility or distrust of any portion of the people, in any section or at any time. He is no theorist—no scheming or speculating politician. His statesmanship is purely practical—seeking practical ends solely by practicable means—and aiming to secure the highest permanent good of the people, and the consequent strength and stability of the nation, rather than the indulgence of personal ambition or the gratification of a restless, theorizing mind. He will maintain the ascendancy and authority of the law, first, because the obligations of his official duty and oath will require him to do it, and furthermore, because it is only through the agency and authority of the law that peace can be preserved and the welfare of the nation can be secured. The Democratic party has proclaimed the great aim and object of its contest to be the forcible nullification of the law, and the overthrow by force of the authority of the Government which seeks to maintain it. Frank Blair's letter, which is everywhere accepted by the party as its real platform—the keynote of the canvass—proclaims this in language so clear that it cannot be mistaken, and so emphatic that it cannot be disregarded. The paramount object which the Democrats have in view in electing a Democratic President, is to secure through him, by means of the army that will be under his command, the overthrow and depression of the State Governments newly established in the Southern States, and to compel by the bayonet the Senate and, if necessary, the House of Representatives, to obey the dictation of the Executive alone. This is the Democratic programme for the Government of this Republic. It corresponds precisely with the programme by which Louis Napoleon, in 1852, converted the Republic of France, of which he had been elected President, into an Empire, and made himself Emperor. It differs only in this, that Napoleon did the act in the darkness of midnight, and then asked the people to sanction it, while our Democratic party has the frankness and the assurance to ask the people to sanction their coup d'état in advance. Napoleon told the French that his Empire was "peace." The Democrats tell our people the same thing; but as their Executive Empire is not yet established, and they have not yet the command of the army, the people will probably look for "peace" in some other direction.

"Unconstitutional, Revolutionary, and Void." From the N. Y. Times. Governor Baker, of Indiana, in a discussion with Senator Hendricks, traced the course of the Democrats from the commencement of the war, with the view of showing that the opposition now offered to the reconstruction policy is identical with that which assailed every measure employed by the national government in the struggle for its existence. The argument now employed to break down the Republican policy for the restoration of the Union, is a repetition of that which was again and again used to sustain the cause of the Rebellion. The men who now condemn reconstruction as "unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void," in the same terms denounced the purpose to put down the Rebellion by force of arms. That was a pre-eminently unconstitutional policy, in the opinion of the managers of the New York Convention. They held that, under the Constitution, the States had a right to secede, and that the exercise of coercion by the Federal Government to prevent the exercise of the right, was revolutionary.—According to them, the Government made war upon the Constitution when it undertook the suppression of the Rebellion. Clinging tenaciously to this doctrine, the Copperheads never neglected a chance of doing all that the rules of Congress allow to obstruct and embarrass the course of the Government.—All the great measures of the war period they attacked in succession as revolutionary and unconstitutional.—The first call for troops was objected to on this ground. The enactment of the test oath, designed to exclude rebels from office; the amnesty and emancipation proclamations of Mr Lincoln; the initiatory reconstruction proclamation of the same President; and generally all that Mr. Lincoln or Congress did to weaken the Rebels or directly to add vigor to the prosecution of the war—encountered the active opposition of those who now attack reconstruction. Even the issue of greenbacks, with which the Democratic party now proposes to pay the bondholder, was resisted as an infraction of the Constitution. The financial measures which the exigencies of the time necessitated, were enacted in spite of an opposition akin to that which would plunge the reconstructed States back into anarchy. The plea and the purpose have been the same all the time. At every step the party of the Union was compelled to contest the ground with the politicians who nominated Seymour and Blair. They were not simply indifferent. They were active on the side of the enemy; not indeed waging battle in the open field, but doing service as aiders and abettors of the enemy at Washington and in the Northern States. And their pretense was perpetually the same. Always and everywhere their attempts to destroy the Union, by obstructing measures framed for its defense, were paraded as in the cause of the Constitution. The Rebel party, according to their hypothesis—was the only constitutional party. The Union party as they regarded it, never ceased to be revolutionary, or its policy ever otherwise than unconstitutional and void.

☞A California story tells of a man who resolved to quit drinking, and went to a notary to get him to draw up an affidavit to that effect. The document was drawn, read, and proved; the party held up his hand and murmured the usual "help me." It was properly sealed and delivered. "What's to pay?" asked the pledger. "No pay—to pay?" exclaimed the party, "nothing, of course—this is a labor of love." "Nothing to pay?" returned the grateful but very forgetful affiant, "You're a brick. Let's take a drink!"

☞The next State election takes place in Nebraska on the first Tuesday of October. The contest will be for one Congressman, Governor, State officers and Legislature. The Republicans elected their Governor in June, 1866, by 145 majority. In October following they elected Marquette to Congress by a majority of 745, over T. S. Martin. The contest in October will be a sharp one, but the Republican ticket will pretty surely succeed, as Grant certainly will in November.

The Full Union Republican Ticket.

We give on the opposite page a column of correct and full Union Republican tickets. Cut them out and have them ready for voting—but examine them again before voting and be sure that they have not been tampered with—that they are the same as when you cut them out, free from pasters.—You cannot be too careful to have your tickets right—you might be deceived by one you would least suspect. Every trick possible will be resorted to to defeat a portion of our ticket.—Be on your guard to detect and expose any man who may attempt to deceive a voter with a spurious or pasted ticket.

TUESDAY NEXT.--RALLY!

Union Republican voters of Huntingdon county, don't forget that on next Tuesday you can have the pleasure of firing the first broadside into the enemy's camp. Remember that the battle well begun is half won. Be on the ground early—HAVE EVERY VOTE OUT—stay by the polls until the last paper bullet is deposited in the ballot-box—see that our friends are not deceived with spurious tickets now in circulation. Watch the pasters. A few tickets lost in each district might defeat a portion of our ticket.—STRIKE NOT A SINGLE NAME.—Do the work clean and the co-workers with the Rebels will retire to their holes disgusted with themselves.

Do You See It?

Republicans of Huntingdon county, do you see what the Democrats expect to accomplish by their infamous abuse of Capt. Neely? If they cannot defeat him, they expect at least to make his run in his party some hundreds behind other Republicans on the same ticket, and if they succeed in that they believe they will have the seed sown to bring about a disorganization of the Union Republican party in the county.

Do you see it—or will you go it blind?

Republicans, Look Out for Big Lies!

This week's Monitor will "go it" on a high horse to try to defeat somebody. Morrell, Brown, Martin and Neely will come in for a heavy dose of the strongest lies the Rebel co-workers can manufacture. Have but one purpose, Union Republicans, and let that purpose be the support of every man nominated by your party—and your whole ticket will be elected—and the goose will hang high.

SEND IN THE RETURNS EARLY.

We hope our friends in every election district in the county will take the trouble to send us the returns as soon after the votes are counted as possible. We will delay our paper until Wednesday noon for the purpose of giving our readers the result in the county and State as early as possible.

☞Voters, remember that you vote in October whether the war is a failure. Remember that the South is now organizing for Seymour and Blair under the same leaders that fought to keep in power Jeff. Davis and Stephens.

Union Republicans of Huntingdon County, Will you Permit the 'Monitor' Desperadoes to use you to Defeat your Party and its Candidates.

Be Not Deceived by Falsehoods.

Union Republicans, and independent voting Democrats, in all our experience as an editor we have never known of a more desperate attempt being made to destroy the character of a good and worthy citizen than is now being made by the editor of the Monitor and his "aids" to destroy the unimpeachable character of our brave soldier candidate for Sheriff, Capt. D. R. P. NEELY. Why they should make him a special mark of attack with all the vile falsehoods they can hatch, may not be understood by the careless observer of the political workings of parties. The office of Sheriff is an important office, as well in time of peace as in time of rebellion, and if Seymour and Blair should be elected it might be important to the Blair revolutionists to have one of their party filling the Sheriff's office in this and every other county in the loyal North. We do not say that Mr. Africa is not a loyal man, but we do say that he is a co-worker with disloyal men, and if elected he would feel in duty bound to act with his party and be influenced by its leaders. Mr. Africa's character as a citizen, is unimpeachable; politically he occupies the position of an earnest party man, and it is fair to suppose if elected he would act with his party no matter where the leaders might lead. After diligent inquiry from neighbors of Capt. Neely, men who have known him from boyhood up, we cannot learn anything else than that he as a citizen has as unimpeachable a character as can be claimed for his opponent Mr. Africa, the falsehoods of his political opponents and their few secret "aids" to the contrary notwithstanding.

But Capt. Neely must be defeated, or at least his majority must be reduced some hundreds below the party vote! The Democrats say it must be done. If they cannot defeat him they will be satisfied if they can reduce his majority so as to show that he was "cut" by a "faction" of his own party. Then at the next election they will call on the friends who stood by the Captain and voted the whole ticket, to "cut" the "faction" that opposed the regular nominees this fall, and by continuing at the same game they expect so to disorganize the Union Republican party of the county that they will in a short time be able to elect their own men with but little difficulty. Their plan to disorganize and finally to defeat the Republican party is a sharp enterprise—but it cannot be successful without the aid of Republicans, and we cannot think any Republican with his eyes open will lend himself as a tool to work out the defeat of his own party. If Republicans want an excuse to vote against Capt. Neely they should be honest enough to borrow one from some other source than the Monitor. If they can believe the Monitor falsehoods against Neely, it would be as convenient for them to believe its falsehoods against Grant. Capt. Neely is the Union Republican nominee—he is a man of unimpeachable character as a citizen—was a brave soldier in the field against rebels and their sympathizers—and is worthy the vote of every Union Republican, and independent Democrat in the county.

Examine your tickets!

EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS!

EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS!

Republicans of Huntingdon county be sure to examine your tickets before you vote and see that you are not deceived into the support of the Democratic candidate for Sheriff. There are tickets now in circulation in every district in the county, printed just as full Republican tickets have been printed, with the single exception that the name of William Africa occupies the place that should be occupied by David R. P. Neely. Be not deceived into the support of such a ticket: See for yourselves before you vote that you have a full Republican ticket. Some of the spurious tickets are in the hands of men claiming to be good Republicans, —to what extent they will attempt to use them can only be exposed by vigilant friends of the Republican party who should make themselves active on the day of election.

Be vigilant!—be active!—and return a full and solid Republican vote from every district—but if you fail to do so, know who should take the responsibility.

☞"Let us have peace"—not the prayer of the patriot, but the decree of a despot.—Huntingdon Monitor.

Grant not a patriot? Was he a despot when he crushed the rebellion? Was he a despot when he compelled General Lee to surrender? The Rebels would say he was. The Rebels would say Gen. Lee was a patriot and Gen. Grant was a despot—but we were not prepared to believe that a Democratic paper in loyal old Huntingdon would dare to denounce Grant as a despot after he had saved our country from being destroyed by Rebels. We would advise the Monitor to be politically honest and come out plainly and advocate secession and rebellion, and then the loyal portion of the Democratic party would see to where they are in danger of being dragged. "Let us have peace," not the prayer of a patriot? Shame on the man who can thus speak of General Grant.

☞What does Gen. John A. Dix say? He says:

"I see but one source of safety for the country under existing circumstances, and that is the election of Gen. Grant."

Voters, Democrats as well as Republicans, listen to the warning words of one of the best men in the United States. John A. Dix is not a Republican—neither is he a Rebel "Democrat."

THE MONITOR'S BIG LIE.

Look Out for More of the Same Size.

The Editor Arrested and Bound Over.

The Monitor of last week published an article as editorial, charging Capt. Neely with being beastly drunk in this place on the Wednesday night previous. We give one paragraph of the article that our readers who do not see the Monitor may have an idea of the kind of lying our soldier candidate has to run against—it is as follows:

"It now becomes our humiliating duty—we say humiliating because we are related to Capt. Neely by closer ties than ordinary business or friendship—to warn the good people of this county against casting their suffrage for David R. P. Neely, for on Wednesday night last he was beastly drunk. During the day he put in his time in trading knives, and at 10 o'clock, p. m., commenced his drunken spree and kept it up until past midnight, when nature would stand it no longer, and sick with vomiting, the 'temperate' Captain was laid away for the night."

Now when we tell our readers that there is not a word of truth in the charges of the editor against Capt. Neely, what can they think of such a paper and the man or men who control its columns. We were in town during every hour Capt. Neely was here, and not until the Tuesday following was there a word uttered by any body charging Capt. Neely with being drunk here. We have seen some gentlemen who were in Capt. Neely's company on Wednesday evening until he went to bed, and they all say he was not drunk—that they did not believe he had tasted liquor during the evening or night. The Captain himself has told us that he did not taste any kind of liquor during the day or night. The Captain is not a drinking man, and we are very sure that we run no risk in venturing the assertion that there is not a respectable or responsible man in the town or county who will, under oath, say that Captain Neely is a drunkard or was drunk or under the influence of liquor on the Wednesday night referred to. The Monitor man and his "aids" must indeed be anxious to defeat Captain Neely when they will resort to such low filthy lying. They expected that they would not be interfered with—that they could lie as much as they pleased, but the Captain has put his foot down and now they must be satisfied with the course of law and justice. Capt. Neely, on Saturday last, had the editor of the Monitor arrested, and bound over to Court to answer for libel, and he is determined to put all others guilty of retailing the slander through the same "course of sprouts."

P. S.—See the statements of the gentlemen who were with Capt. Neely during the evening and night referred to.

☞Frank Blair said the other night in an address to the Democracy of Pittsburg:

"Now, what is it that the Democrats propose if they obtain the power? They propose the restoration of peace by giving back the government of the Southern States into the hands of men of our own race, that created these Governments."

Mr. Blair means by this sentiment that if he should be elected Vice President that the Government of the Southern States will be given back into the hands of such men as Hampton, Forrest, Semmes, Vance, Wise and others, who are now clamoring to obtain that power. All their crimes of treason and rebellion are to be forgiven and forgotten; they are to be treated as if they had never rebelled; they are to be placed in the same positions they were before the war where they may be permitted to hatch over their schemes of breaking up the Union; they are to be given all they wanted when they sounded the tocsin of war and fired on Fort Sumter; their dovelish and inhuman treatment of our Union soldiers is to be forgotten, and they are to be permitted to rule over the loyal men of the land.

Such is to be the situation of affairs if Frank Blair is made Vice President, and Horatio Seymour President. This, he says, is the way the Democratic party propose to restore peace. When peace is to come at such a sacrifice as this, then indeed will the Democratic professions that the war was a failure be true; then may the South, again organized under its old leaders, re-assert its dogmas, re-establish negro slavery, and pave the way for a final separation from the Union. Loyal men, can you trust the Democratic party with power in a time like this, and when the rebels are bold in declaring that they will get all they want when that party gets in power? This question we leave you to decide at the ballot-box in October and November.

☞The utmost vigilance will be necessary on the part of the Republicans, to guard against fraudulent voters at the October election. Squads of new comers are making their appearance in this and many of the adjoining counties. These movements of strangers and carpet baggers are not of chance. There is a purpose to be executed, and it is the duty of Vigilance Committees to see that no fraudulent means are used to reduce our majority. The presence of these men, at such a time, and under the circumstances detailed to us, is sufficient to put Republicans on their guard. By placing these squads of carpet-baggers under strict surveillance, they can be prevented from voting should the attempt be made.

☞We have been credibly informed by citizens of Barree that some few of our town Democrats were very active at the camp meeting in that township in retailing the Monitor's lies against Capt. Neely. They could have been engaged in a better business.

GET OUT EVERY UNION VOTE.

Has the "Monitor" Substantiated its Assertion?

At the conclusion of the Monitor's article charging Captain Neely with drunkenness is the following paragraph:

"If we cannot substantiate our assertion, within three days from this date (Sept. 29th, 1 P. M.,) we will forfeit twenty-five dollars, and also publish the proof of the falsehood of our assertion in our columns next week."

Now, we are not a lawyer, and don't know exactly how a lawyer would take hold of the proposition of the editor—but we suppose he had the liberty at any time during the three days to "substantiate" his assertion. Has he done so—if not, will he pay over the $25 and take back the falsehood? On the last day of the three the editor "slid," and remained away until the three days were up. Perhaps he had an eye on saving the $25 which were in danger if he had remained at home. But we are not particular about trifles —the important question is, has he substantiated his assertion? Up to this time, (Tuesday morning,) nobody has heard of any proof being offered by the editor to substantiate his assertion. His assertions hereafter will be worthless, and we are glad the enemies of Captain Neely have so early and openly exposed the game they are determined to play until the day of election. Republicans of the county, you will be perfectly safe in pronouncing FALSE every assertion the Monitor may make against any one of your candidates.—Wallace has given it a license to LIE to the extent of the abilities of its editor. Outside of politics we believe Mr. Cornman can and will tell the truth, but in politics, judging from the past, we don't believe it would be safe to believe a single word that may come from his lips or his pen.

☞Gen. Frank P. Blair delivered a speech in Pittsburgh on Tuesday night last in which he says he did write the Broadhead letter, and he reiterated that the reconstruction acts are "null and void" and that the President of the United States should maintain the Constitution and see that the laws are not allowed to be executed. He pro claimed boldly that if Mr. Seymour is elected it will be his duty to support the rebel leaders in their insolent demands; aid them in forcibly resisting the laws; turn Congress out at the point of the bayonet, and treat it only as a "Rump," the "fragment of a Congress;" and, regardless of consequences, instal the rebels and reverse the verdict of the war.

All these things Blair does not hesitate to avow. Not Wade Hampton, or Forrest, or any rebel whatever, has yet uttered sentiments so revolutionary and dangerous as are contained in Blair's Tuesday night speech—a speech that was applauded as the genuine doctrine. It is the doctrine, we may be sure, that will shape the policy of the administration of Seymour, should the Democrats triumph—rather of Blair, for who believes that Blair would not be the leading spirit, if he did not become the real head of the administration?

OVERDOING THEIR DIRTY WORK.—The maliciously false charges of the Monitor against Capt. Neely are driving honest men of the Democratic party in every part of the county over to his support. Republicans too, warm personal friends of Mr. Africa, who intended to vote for him, now declare they will vote for Capt. Neely because of the unjust abuse of a brave soldier by the warm party friends of the Democratic candidate. The friends of Gen. Grant cannot be used by the so-called Democracy to aid in defeating one of his brave soldiers. When the election is over, and Capt. Neely is declared elected, as he will be, his enemies will hang their heads in shame for the dirty part they performed to defeat him. They will then feel how low they stooped to conquer.

☞John S. Miller expects to be elected—at least so he says. Well, if Republicans in this Representative district can vote for him to defeat Saml. T. Brown, one of the best men in the district, they will be prepared to do most anything else. We could as soon think that Republicans could vote for Seymour to defeat Grant, as to think it possible for Republicans to vote for Miller to defeat Brown. The idea cannot be entertained for a moment—a United States Senator will be elected, next winter, and the Republican who votes for Miller or Taylor votes for a so-called Democrat for United States Senator for six years. Good Union Republicans can't be caught in such a trap.

☞Blair was nominated by the Democratic National Convention because he had said in a letter that Republican reconstruction in the Southern States should be upset by the bayonet. The Blair spirit is at work in the Southern States. Every day we see accounts of Republican meetings being disturbed and broken up by Rebels in arms. Their conduct now towards the loyal people of those States is mild to what it will be should Seymour and Blair be elected. Elect Seymour and Blair and there can be no doubt of another rebellion. Elect Grant and Colfax and we will have peace, as the rebels will have poor encouragement to continue their opposition to the loyal people of the South.

☞The circulation of the Globe is now some hundreds greater than it ever was, and is much larger than any other paper in the county, and we have noticed wherever it circulates most general, there the most lively party feeling prevails and the most determined effort is making to give a full and solid vote for the whole ticket.

☞Vote for Brown and Martin.

THE STATE.

We have cheering news from every part of the State. Hartranft and Campbell are popular with the people everywhere. They cannot be otherwise, for they were brave soldiers in the fight to save our country from Rebel rule, and should they be wanted again to face the enemy they will be on hand at the tapping of the drum. Every county promises to give an increased Union Republican vote over last year—and if they do as well as we believe old Huntingdon will do, our majority will not be less than fifteen or twenty thousand.

☞Gen. Geo. B. McClellan arrived in New York from Europe last week. A procession of Democrats gave him a 'welcome home' in the evening. The General's speech was very short—making eight lines. Three cheers were proposed for Seymour and Blair, and given, but not without many hisses from the same men who cheered for M'Clellan. Thousands of warm friends of Gen. McClellan will vote for Gen. Grant—they are not ready to be handed over to the Rebels.

☞Hon. D. J. Morrell, our candidate for Congress, will go over the course about as he did before, only a little more so. Col. Linton his opponent, is a popular Democrat, was a good soldier, is a very clever gentleman, but unfortunately for him he has hitched on with the rebels to help put them in power again before they are fit to be rulers over the country they tried to destroy. Col. Linton can't come in this time

☞The "Democrats" say they will defeat a portion of our ticket. We don't believe they can. We have pledges from every district that the party will vote the ticket solid. There is not a single man on our ticket can be defeated if it receives the vote of the party, and there is no good reason why it should not. We are of the opinion that some of the anxious and easily fooled Democrats will be badly disappointed when they hear from certain districts.

☞The Monitor's "crazy boy" story did'nt pay expenses. The "big drunk" will pay the editor about as well.—What next? Perhaps the Captain will have murdered somebody in this week's issue of that truth-telling paper. We will at least expect to hear that the Captain has been doing something to annoy the editor.

☞A New Orleans paper says: "The Blair Guards, on Friday, and the Seymour Guides, on Saturday, paraded through the streets, carrying the Confederate colors—the three bars, red white and red—which attracted general attention, and excited emotions of approval or condemnation, according to the political bias of the spectator."

☞There is nothing but revolution in the utterances of Democratic speakers, North and South. Can we have peace when such men get in power? Voters, ask yourselves the question.

"The Unkindest Cut."

An Ex-Confederate denounces the Democratic Programme.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard publishes a long letter from General Rufus Barringer, formerly an officer of the Confederate army accepting the nomination of the Republican Elector of North Carolina. He says:—

"I can, under no circumstances, vote the present Democratic programme. I have no special fondness for Republicans; but they never deceived us, and I can at least respect and trust them. This I cannot do with the Northern Democracy. They encouraged our secession leaders into war and then deserted us—many of them leading the Union armies against us. The Republicans warned us against secession, and did only what they said they would. On some accounts I prefer a military man. As a class they have few prejudices. The soldiers of the two armies will be first to forget the unhappy past, and rejoice together in the hopes of the future. Gen. Grant was magnanimous to us in the surrender. He has uttered no unkind words to us. He has commended the noble qualities of the Southern army. He is neither a negro hater or a negro worshipper. It can now only be his ambition to restore the Union he has saved—to restore it in all its parts, its interests, its sympathies, and its aspirations. He will not only give us peace and prosperity, but a Union we can love and a government we can honor."

Democratic Naturalization Frauds in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1.

John Devine, arrested by the police last night for snapping a pistol as a Republican procession was passing in the street, had on his person twelve certificates of naturalization signed by Prothonotary Snowden, with the seal of the court on them, but a blank left for names. He was committed.

Joseph A. Watson, who was vouched on nearly one hundred naturalization papers, has been arrested.

Six men were arrested to-day for attempting to get assessed in wards where they do not live, with the intention of duplicating the votes.

The excitement in relation to the naturalization is increasing. From an examination of the records in Court it appears that some thousands of papers have been issued in which the residences of the persons vouching for applicants were in no instance taken down, so that the record of the Court is useless in any attempt to prosecute the voucher for perjury in cases of fraud.

Fifteen roughs from Baltimore have been arrested for assailing the Boys in Blue on the cars.

☞VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET.

The "Monitor's" Slander against Capt. D. R. P. Neely

NAILED!

The following statements by respectable citizens of Huntingdon, should be sufficient to satisfy any reasonable man that the assertion of the Monitor that Capt. D. R. P. NEELY was "beastly drunk" in this place on Wednesday night the 23d ult., is FALSE. They should also satisfy any man that it will be unsafe to believe any assertion the Monitor has made or may hereafter make to injure our candidates. Read the statements, and then loan your paper to your neighbor if he should not have one of his own.

HUNTINGDON, Oct. 5, 1868.

To William Lewis, Editor Globe:—Dear Sir:—In last week's issue of the Monitor, there is a statement, charging Capt. D. R. P. Neely with being beastly drunk on Wednesday night, the 23d of September last. I consider it a duty I owe to Captain Neely, who was a brave and loyal soldier, to disprove this base slander. Capt D. R. P. Neely was in the store of Cunningham & Carmon, the evening in question, up until the time of closing the store, which was about 9 o'clock in the evening. The Captain was neither drunk nor had he been drinking. The Monitor need not think by such base calumnies as these it can induce Republicans to vote against the soldier.

HUNTINGDON, Oct. 5, 1868.

To Wm Lewis, Editor Globe:—Dear Sir:—I was much surprised to see in last week's Monitor, the charge of drunkenness brought against Capt. D. R. P. Neely, stating that Capt. Neely was beastly drunk on the evening of Wednesday, the 23d of September last. I was with Capt. Neely and Sergeant Levi Graham on that evening up until 9 or half past nine o'clock. I can testify that he neither was drunk nor had he been drinking. Captain Neely has the reputation of a brave and loyal soldier, and it makes the blood of loyal men tingle to hear the Monitor, that sheet that called our brave soldier boys Lincoln hirelings, while the war was going on and they were peroiling life and all they held dear in defence of our country, now trying to blacken their character, when the people have nominated them for office.

Yours, &c., JOHN MAJOR.

HUNTINGDON, Oct. 5, 1868.

To William Lewis, Editor Globe:—Dear Sir:—I saw in last week's Monitor a statement, stating that Capt. D. R. P. Neely was "beastly drunk" on Wednesday night the 23d of September last. I consider it a duty that I owe to Captain Neely to clear his character from this vile charge. I was with Capt. Neely on the evening in question up until 10 o'clock, and know that he had not been drinking and that he was perfectly sober. I would further state that I have known Capt. D. R. P. Neely all my life, that we have lived near neighbors from boyhood, that I have never known or heard of his being a drinking character, that I was Sergeant of Co. I, 149th Regiment, of which Capt. Neely was Captain, and that neither in the army or out of it, I never knew Capt. Neely to be under the influence of liquor. The Captain was a brave and loyal soldier. I would in honor of the Captain state that when our company first enlisted to wit: Aug. 7th, 1862, Capt. Neely also volunteered, but was rejected on account of being crippled in the knee. He then persuaded a young man of this county, to represent him before the examining Surgeon, and after the examination Capt. Neely took his place, and by this means got into the service. He enlisted as a private, and by meritorious conduct rose to be Captain of the company. He was in every battle his company was engaged in.

HUNTINGDON, Oct. 5, 1868.

To William Lewis, Editor Globe:—Dear Sir:—In last weeks Monitor there was a statement stating that Capt. D. R. P. Neely was beastly drunk. I consider it a duty that I owe to a brave soldier to clear his character from the foul charge brought against him by the Monitor. On the Wednesday evening in question, Capt. Neely was in my office with Mr. Levi Graham, of Mount Union for about one hour, and left the office about half past ten o'clock in the evening. Up until half past 10 o'clock that evening I can bear cheerful testimony Capt. Neely had not been drinking and was perfectly sober. I would further state that I have known Capt. Neely intimately for over 12 years and during that time I never know him to take a glass of liquor.

HUNTINGDON, Oct. 5, 1868.

To Wm. Lewis, Editor Globe:—Dear Sir:—In the Huntingdon Monitor of the 30th ult., I notice an article charging that Capt. D. R. P. Neely, our candidate for Sheriff, was "beastly drunk" in this town on the night of Wednesday, the 23th ult. I cannot say that I am well acquainted with Captain Neely, but as I know this charge to be unjust and unfounded I deem it my duty to contradict it. It happened that on the evening in question I was called to Altoona on business, and returning to Huntingdon, with the 11 o'clock train I met Capt. Neely at the depot. I think that I had met him once before this time, and was only formally acquainted with him, but he recognized me and walked up street with me stating that he was stopping at the Jackson House. The train being a few minutes late, the Jackson House was closed, whereupon I invited him to the Morrison House, and we remained there together until morning, both of us sleeping in Room No. 12. Although the train was a few minutes late Capt. Neely was in bed before midnight. I conversed with him for some time but I noticed nothing in his conduct or conversation from which I can infer that he was under the influence of liquor. He talked rationally and intelligently and in every respect behaved himself in a courteous and becoming manner. The writer of the article above referred to has certainly been misinformed, and it is to be hoped that he will not hesitate to make the necessary correction. For the truth of my statement I refer to Mr. Hildebrand, the proprietor of the Morrison House, and if requested I will give the names of other gentlemen who saw and conversed with Captain Neely, on the night of the 23ult.

Yours, &c., P. M. LYTLE.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY SS:

P. M. Lytle, having duly been sworn, says that the above statement is correct and true as he verily believes. Witness my hand the 5th day of October, 1868.

HUNTINGDON, Oct. 5, 1868.

To William Lewis, Editor Globe:—Dear Sir:—In the last issue of the "Monitor" I see it stated that Captain D. R. P. Neely on the night of Wednesday, the 23d of September last, was beastly drunk. I consider it my duty to inform you that Captain Neely that night, stayed at the Morrison House, of which I am one of the proprietors, that he went to bed about 11 o'clock in the same room with P. M. Lytle, and that he was perfectly sober.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

☞ Read the patriotic letter of Mr. John Porter, now of Illinois, but formerly of this county, in to-day's issue. He states the question plainly and concisely, and forcibly reminds the Union men of the Old Keystone of the importance of attending the October election.

Millinery.

We are happy to announce to our lady readers that Mrs. L. A. Hamer has returned to this place and opened a shop in Portstown, in the residence of Mr. A. B. Flood, where she is prepared to do all kinds of Millinery work and plain sewing, at lower rates than any other person in town. Having had considerable experience in the business she flatters herself that she can please all who favor her with their custom. oct7-3t

☞ The Monitor and other so-called Democratic papers in this Representative district would like to make the voters believe that Republican candidates for United States Senator have already bought up our Representative candidates to use them in case they should be elected. We have no doubt our candidates, if elected, will vote for a Union Republican for U. S. Senator, and we don't know that their choice should trouble the editor of the Monitor or the editor of any other "Democratic" sheet in the district. The Monitor certainly could not expect our candidates to support any of the candidates offering from the party under the control of Wade Hampton & Co.

☞ The Union Republican nominees are our candidates, and we had hoped that the party organ of the so-called Democracy, and the native politicians of that party, would confine their efforts to defeat our candidates within the lines of truth and decency. But in that we have been slightly disappointed—but we cannot retaliate in the style of the Monitor, though we could do so with more truth to back us than it is possible for the opposition to have to back any of their low, unmanly assertions against a portion of our ticket. Capt. Neely is not a member of a temperance society, but that is no reason why he should be denounced as a drunkard. He is a temperate and correct man in all his habits, and for such a man any temperance man can vote.

The Meetings.

We attended the Orbisonia Mass Meeting on Tuesday afternoon and evening of last week. The meeting in the afternoon was a grand affair. Several large delegations from adjoining townships arrived in good time. The afternoon meeting was addressed by Gen. John Williamson and John Scott, Esq. The evening meeting, which was also a good turn-out, was addressed by Capt. Hunt, of Johnstown, and Lt. H. C. Weaver.

On Friday afternoon we attended a pretty good meeting at the Green Tree, which was addressed by J. Sowell Stewart and John Scott, Esqs. In the evening a good meeting was held at Steffoy's, which was addressed by Gen. Williamson, John Scott, Esq, and Lt. H. C. Weaver.

The meeting at Petersburg on Saturday evening was a grand success — It was addressed by Gen. Williamson, S. T. Brown, David Blair, and John Scott, Esqs. Over fifty of the Tanner Boys of this place were in attendance.

No Republican should stay at home and refuse to vote, on Tuesday next, if he wants to see his party do its full duty this year. The majority of Huntingdon county for Hartranft and Campbell should be 1,000 at least, and it will be that if every man is at the polls doing his duty, against the enemies of his country, who are watching as they did in 1863, the result in Pennsylvania. Remember, Union Republicans, that every man of you are at the ballot-box on Tuesday next. The result in the Old Keystone will determine the success or defeat of General Grant in November next.

☞ Our friend Charley Schreiner is expected to address the Democracy this Tuesday evening at the Court House. As we expect a "skinning," we intend to be there.

"A Grand Fizzle."

As the Monitor was gracious enough to style the Republican meeting lately "a grand fizzle," we similarly style the Democratic meeting on Tuesday night last—for the reason that there were just as many in attendance at the one meeting as there were at the other. Charles A. Eldridge, a Democratic member of Congress from Wisconsin, was the speaker. He said in beginning, that the Southern people were held in subjection with the bayonet at their hearts. This was a horrid picture to show his hearers, but it loses its significance when it is known that what few Union soldiers are now in the South are in the midst of 500,000 Ku Kluxes, who, as the rebel General Forrest says, are armed and ready for fight at his call; he also admitted that if these soldiers were taken away the South would arise and throw off the "negro" governments. And yet he afterwards said that the South was ready to be admitted into the Union, because all the rebels were repentant. His own admission shows how prodigally repentant they are. He and Frank Blair are alike, because he says the reconstruction acts are void, and so does Frank, but he didn't tell us how Seymour, if elected, would upset the present status of things and bring the rebels up "trump." We next had a long (talk about length!) review of the part President Johnson played in the reconstruction movement, and he reviewed, and he reviewed, and he reviewed. But in the midst of his review he forgot to mention that on the 21st of December, 1865, he was one of the Democrats who voted against Johnson's policy, but that he did on the 19th of February following vote the President thanks for employing the war power in the South for the protection of Union citizens and the freedmen. He quoted and repeated as his own opinion a passage taken from the Mass. Commonwealth, which was that the Republican party can not live upon its past reputation. Of course his hearers must have heard from Vermont, Maine and Colorado, and the Republican gains there, and they must accordingly know how true is the remark. Then we heard again about the rebel Southern people having the bayonet at their heart. Well, if such is the case, it is singular why Hampton, Forrest and others, have the boldness to talk so much about the prospect of the "Lost Cause" being regained if Seymour and Blair are elected. Then he said Joe Brown and Gov. Holden were in the Chicago convention, and he said Wade Hampton, Buckner, Preston, and other rebels were in the New York Convention. But he somehow or other forgot to say that here was a distinction with a difference. While Joe Brown and Holden keep their mouths shut and don't spout treason, we hear of Hampton, Vance and others continually saying that all is not lost, but everything will be regained if they are successful this year. Then the speaker drew another picture of a Union General and a rebel General shaking hands at the New York convension, which is undoubtedly the same one the rebel speakers brag about. He talked about Jeff Davis not being tried, but he didn't tell us that on the 11th of June, 1866, he and all the rest of the Democrats voted against holding Jeff Davis in custody as a prisoner, and subjecting him to a trial according to the laws of the land. But then the fluent speaker had to talk about the "nigger," and what a dreadful thing it was that the South as he says was now being ruled by the colored people. He talked about the "ignorant," "savage," "uncivilized" negro, and how incapable he was of self-government, but yet how nicely he made it appear that these same "savages" were governing over eight millions of white men.—He didn't mention that the white members of the Georgia Legislature kicked the negro members out, nor did he say anything about the barbecues to which the South are now invited by these white men, being taken by the arm, eating at the same tables and off the same dishes. The speaker said he never wished to see the day when the blood of his blood, bone of his bone, and flesh of his flesh should be governed by the black and barbarous negro. He said this with emphasis, and of course he meant it, and perhaps he really does believe that 4,000,000 blacks will some day have that sweet advantage over 30,000,000 white men. The balance of his speech was given to a short talk on the taxes, finances, the rich bondholder, of whom he said he was one, the national banks, and the debt. He didn't tell us, though, that he, with other Democrats, on the 5th of December, 1865, voted against the payment of the public debt; nor did he tell us that he, the same Eldridge, voted against a bill which read that no tax, duty or impost shall be laid, and no appropriation of money shall be made, for the purpose of paying the rebel debt. He knew it wouldn't do to tell his hearers that the rebels demand the payment of the debt they contracted when fighting against us, and therefore he barged on the National debt, which we would not have had, if the South had not rebelled. He closed with a review of the candidates, warning Republicans that Grant might "sour on their stomachs." If any Democrats shall be induced by this remark to vote for Grant we shall be happy to hear it. Almost the last words the speaker said were, "Let us have war." He closed—he did, indeed, but those who were present thought he never would. Three hours and a quarter he spoke, and if he had minded his sweated collar he would have quit before he was half way on, but no, he had his hearers there and he wanted them to know who Charles A. Eldridge was. We found him out—he is a Congressman, and one, too, well calculated to prolong the sessions and talk against time. If we hadn't taken notes we wouldn't have known what the man did say, but fortunately we were there for that purpose, and our Democratic friends can take all the comfort from them they choose.

Letter from the West.

MONMOUTH, Illinois,
Sept. 29th, 1868.

Editor Globe:—Dear Sir:—Ever since my visit to your venerable town in July last I have been thinking of dropping you a line for publication but until just now have never got time to put my intentions into practice; and first we have had a very favorable season, though rather a short summer, as we have already had frost enough to kill the corn and all tender vegetation.

But I want to talk to you a little on politics. In our State we are all right for Grant and Colfax; what the number of our majority will be, depends very materially on the news we get from the Old Keystone, on the October election. I wish some of your careless Union men could have seen and heard the motley crowds that turned out to make speeches at the Democratic jubilee held in our city last fall when they heard of the Democratic victory in Pennsylvania. If they could, I don't think they would very soon have stayed away from an election or voted a Democratic tickt in a hurry. I went through curiosity to hear the speeches on that occasion, and I saw men present who never attended a war meeting during the active time of the war, and I heard sentiments that no "copperhead" ever dared to utter during that time in public.

One of their speakers denounced the war on our part as "atrocious;" said it was conducted in a barbarous manner on the part of the North and against every principle of right and justice, and that we of the Republican party were responsible for all the trouble; while the South were fighting for their rights and in accordance with the principles upon which our Government was founded, we were contending against every principle our fathers fought to establish in the war of the Revolution, with much more of the same sort. And now that class of men who did everything they dared to do to create a counter revolution in the North during the war, and who were instruments in inducing the South to hold out and fight us, thereby increasing our debt, have now the impudence to taunt us with its amount and ask us now after putting down the rebellion in spite of them and their allies, to place them, together with the rebels, again in power. I would as soon, if taking passage on a vessel for a four years cruise, vote to put it in control of a gang of mutineers, who had mutinered on a previous cruise and attempted to murder the balance of the crew and passengers for the purpose of turning Pirates as to vote for the nominees of the late New York Convention; and if a man came round to induce me to vote for such a crowd with a story that before the attempted mutiny some of the mutineers ran the vessel for less than it cost afterwards, I should tell him I wanted some assurance of Peace and safety as well as economy besides. I should have some hesitation in trusting in the honesty of a traitor; but I must close. Say to your men not to fail to attend the October election. The effect of a Union Republican victory in the old Keystone in October will send a thrill of joy to the heart of every true patriot in the land, and will add immensely to the result in November, and there is no question but the success of the so-called Democracy in this election would be to lose everything for which our armies fought during the war—a thing we cannot afford. Yours truly,

JNO. PORTER.

DIED,

On the 3d inst., Mrs. MARGARET GREEN, at the residence of her son, in Barree township, aged 86 yrs and 10 month.

At the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. George Whitaker, Alexandria, Pa., on the 23d of September, Mr. WM. P. DAVIS, aged 27 years, 3 months and 19 days.

He was "the highest style of man," a christian, and esteemed by all who knew him. Quiet and unobtrusive in his manner, to know him was to love him. But death loves a shining mark. After a brief illness, he died unexpectedly to all. He leaves a wife, a mother, brothers and sisters to mourn his early departure. He is lost to us here, lost, only like the stars of the morning which have faded in the light of a pure sky. While crushed by the stroke faith would say: "Thy will O Lord, be done."

"To have lived well is to die well."

McGUIRE'S

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER

FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR,

And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries—No preparation of or would give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

McGUIRE'S

Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion

For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and perfuming the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances. This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and Empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headache.

McGUIRE'S

WILD FLOWERS FOR THE TEETH.

All those who are in favor of white teeth and a pleasant and perfumed breath, should at once use McGuire's Wild Flowers for the Teeth. All these preparations are put up in the most elegant and ornamental manner. We make no exception in saying that they are an ornament to a lady's toilet table, and none complete without them.

Warranted satisfactory or money refunded. Dealers will bear this in mind. Sold by all respectable Druggists in the United States and Canada. Address orders to
